Chapter 1 by Nisachar Kabial

Life is mysterious..Why do I say so ! Last month I was in Italy and now I roam in Parliament of India with my sister and both my parents dead.Elections are just months away.

It happened so quickly.I was studying in Italy,enjoying with my several girlfriends and enjoying pasta..and good red wine.

Breaking news about my family landed in media just midnight of 15 days ago.However when my family breaks relationship or when I choose a new girlfriend that is a breaking news...After all we are the most influential family in India that changes India politics. But this time it was different ...My parents were bombed and my sister was alone handling all affairs and so I had to come back.

But taking the realm of your own family is difficult and that too of Choudhuris of India.

And let me introduce myself...I am Raj Choudhuri..the grandson of Former President of India and son of Prime minister of India.
